CURIOUSER AND CURIOUSER

“LET THEM EAT CROISSANTS!”

Did you know? Our pastry chefs at London Hilton on Park Lane make around 150 croissants for breakfast every day. (That’s 54,750 croissants a year!)

But did you also know? Legend says that when Vienna-born Marie Antoinette moved to France at the age of 14 to marry the future Louis XVI, she pined for Austrian kipferl – a heavy dough in a crescent shape – and asked the court bakers to recreate it.

The buttery, flaky version we know today came to fame after August Zang, an Austrian military official, founded a bakery in Paris in 1838. Either way, all breakfast pastries, such as pain au chocolat and brioche, are known as “viennoiseries”.
