Medea vs Gaia

A 17-year-old Indian woman in Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, was brought to the attention of a gynaecologist with a complaint of irregular periods. She was diagnosed with a hormone-secreting tumour. Her doctor says she is now 50 years old, and the police suspect she is a victim of a ritual killing.

Medea is a figure from Greek mythology, known for her jealousy and murder of her children. Gaia is the Earth goddess in Greek mythology. The article explores the connection between these mythological figures and the real-life case of a woman with a hormone-secreting tumour.
